

AWARD-WINNING and BEST-SELLING AUTHOR. Early Reader, Chapter Book Series for 4 - 10-year-old girls. Eclair Goes to Stellas is funny, sad, heart warming, and genuine all at once! • ~ Renee Gray-Wilburn, co-author of Grandparenting Through Obstacles: Overcoming Family Challenges to Reach Your Grandchildren for Christ (Pix-N-Pens, 2012). •Michelle's story is well-written and engaging. She does a wonderful job of developing the characters and deals with difficult issues in a kid-friendly way. Readers will be quickly drawn into this story and want to keep reading. There are so many dimensions to this story--it is filled with humor, action, and emotion--a great read! • --Award-winning children's book author, Crystal Bowman. When Eclair's mother leaves home, Eclair and her little sister must go live on a farm with Stella, their eccentric grandma. •More and more, grandparents today are assuming the role of part-time or even full-time caregivers for their grandkids. In Eclair Goes to Stellas, we see how one grandmother bravely and creatively steps into this role to help her family through a difficult situation. I'm certain that children everywhere will be able to relate to the range of emotions that little Eclair faces as she struggles to adjust to her new living arrangements then begins to welcome the love and care her grandmother offers. • ~ Renee Gray-Wilburn, co-author of Grandparenting Through Obstacles: Overcoming Family Challenges to Reach Your Grandchildren for Christ (Pix-N-Pens, 2012). There is a growing trend in America •"grandparents raising grandchildren. According to the AARP •™s Grandfacts, •"Across the United States, almost 7.8 million children are living in homes where grandparents or other relatives are the householders, with more than 5.8 million children living in grandparents •™ homes and nearly 2 million children living in other relatives •™ homes. These families are often called grandfamilies. •
