

These are the four best years of your life, as they say. But they forget to mention the lostness and the monotony. And they didnt say anything about decisions you would have to make. The Pill. The phonies. Acid. The importance of grades. Discrimination. Depression. And they didnt tell you who you are or why youre here or where youre going. You want to talk with your God because hes the only One who really knows what your problems are and why. But somehow the olf, formal, tried words and prayer formulas wont suffice. So heres a little help. Thirty direct, honest talks with the One who understands you -- from the inside.
