

In the fall of 1960, Senator John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard Nixon campaigned for the Presidency. These are the actual audio recordings of the legendary televised debates which signaled, forever, a change in how politicians campaign. The two political legends clash over such topics as Communist China, civil rights, the economy, labor programs, nuclear testing and Cuba. These recordings are historical documentation of one of the most notable political rivalries in American history. 4 cassettes.
