

Lots of medicines and herbs give you the hope of gaining that erection force you once had. Who could guess that out of all these drugs, only 2 of them are needed for a perfect erection, and they are cheap to get? Two... That's it! One is to open up the arteries to let blood in; and the other one is to narrow the veins so that the blood can stay in the penis. The result is a massive erection, in the way you had it in your teenage years. There are also a couple of bonuses for other enhancements, including a unique and safe way to spike up your testosterone to a new height, and an herb that can stop your premature ejaculation problem without desensitizing you.
